Selectmen's Meeting

NOVEMBER 15, 1983 by Virginia Arral

SHELL BEACH DISCUSSION

"We are the other Shell Beach residents", proclaimed Alan R. Rosen of 4 Dyar Road. About 10 residents attended Tuesday's Selectmen's meeting in response to the Selectmen's meeting of November 1st when Thomas Tyson and Barry Cudmore of Shell Beach objected to police denying use of an unregistered dirt bike on what they (the residents) termed to be private roads.

Rosen said, "We are slightly outraged that Tyson and Cudmore have posted signs at the entrance to Shell Beach reading -- Shell Beach/Private Property/No Trespassing. We do not want to be considered 'ultra-private' nor do we want our services cut." He added that they didn't receive permission from Virginia Newman, owner of the roads, to install the sign.

Mrs. Newman, who lives in Florida, was contacted and sent clippings from the newspapers on reports of the November 1st meeting. She was not aware of the sign and was not pleased with its placement, explained one of the residents.

Rosen continued, "We are offended by the dirt bikes and the noise. They were in use this past weekend and the police were called."

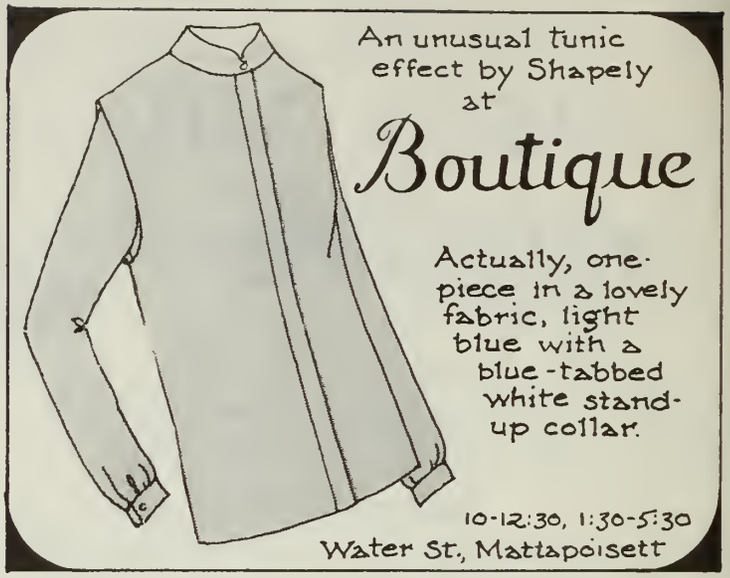
Police Chief James Moran said he dispatched an officer to the scene but the offenders were off the road; they appeared to know police were coming. The chief added that he will continue to respond to calls, but if they are on private property they have a right to drive the bikes. However, police do have a right to ask them to cease and desist if the noise is objectionable. If there is an unregistered bike on the street, it will be towed away, the chief noted.

Selectman Frank Suzan said the town will continue to collect trash, plow roads, and offer fire and police protection. As a group, the residents declared its thanks to the selectmen and police chief for backing them up.

In other business Selectmen:



APPROVED two requests made at public hearings for the storage of fuel oil.

The application of Earl and Carrie Scott, owners of the property at 146 Acushnet Road, requested a permit for one 500 gallon above ground tank. The Scott's son, Peter, who lives on the property, needs the fuel to operate his equipment business.

William T. Nicholson, water superintendent, Winfield Jenney and Ralph Wordell, water commissioners, attended the hearing prepared to object to an underground tank installation as was previously advertised. Their objections centered on the nearness of the proposed tank to town wells.

They had no objection to an above ground tank, especially when Scott explained he will place it on cement blocks and place a barrier around it to absorb any leaks.

The second application was received from Thomas and Linda Brownell who requested one 2000 gallon underground tank to hold heating fuel. The fuel will be used at the Brownell Boat Works building presently under construction at the Industrial Park. There were no objectors. Both installations must be approved by Fire Chief Paul Bradley.

numerous requests from parents wishing to have their children fingerprinted. Moran noted the police department does not have any plan in the works at the present time, but he would be happy to provide the service if selectmen approved.

Selectmen heartily endorsed the project providing the fingerprinting is voluntary. A letter will be sent to the Elementary School Committee informing it of the police chief's willingness to provide the service and that the police department does have funds that could be made available for the project.

Executive Secretary Carol Adams added that several parents had called the selectmen's office expressing an interest in the fingerprinting procedure.

AGREED to have the lights turned off at the wharf, with the exception of the big floodlight, at the end of November. This recommendation came from Lloyd Haskell, harbormaster.

Haskell requested an increase in pay for any person he hires to do work at the wharf. The present rate for general laborer is $3.81 per hour. The board recommended that Haskell discuss the matter with the Personnel Board when he prepares next year's budget.

DEFERRED action on a request from Ken Jacobs of Creative Marketing Communication for permission for a van to travel throughout the town passing out a certain brand of cigarettes.

Selectmen agreed not to approve such a request until the representative comes personally before the board to explain the distribution procedure.

WERE NOTIFIED that the administrative and disbursing of emergency food and shelter funds in this area will now be handled through PACE (People Acting in Community Endeavor) and not through the Marion Center for Human Services, as previously announced.

DECIDED to defer attending the December 6th meeting in Mansfield on the Right-to-Know Law. The board felt it could acquire information following the session.

HEARD that the Council on Aging has received $936 under the State Council on Aging grant formula program for fiscal year 1984. The funds must be used only to pay for repairs to the senior bus and to

TOOK UNDER ADVISEMENT bids for de-icing salt for town roads. All were referred to Manuel R. Nunes, highway surveyor.

They included: Cargill, Inc., Watkins Glen, N.Y., $31.81 per ton; International Salt Co., Clarks Summit, Penn., $28.40 per ton; Morton Thiokol, Inc., Chicago, $25.45 per ton; Eastern Minerals, Inc., Lowell, $31.50 per ton.

DISCUSSION ON MICRO-FILMING RECORDS

A brief discussion was held on the possibility of having some of the town hall records micro-filmed. Selectman John DeCosta, chairman, noted some of the record books were in the process of being rebound and that the safe was becoming overcrowded. "Before we start stacking books on the floor, we really should look into micro-filming", DeCosta said.

Selectmen Frank Suzan noted there may be other fire-proof storage places in town, such as at the schools. Executive Secretary Carol Adams was instructed to research as to what records could be micro-filmed and what ones cannot. She was also asked to check on the machine needed to view the material. The present safe is the original one installed when the town hall was built in 1897.

Friday.

We are releasing this schedule a week early to let you know in time to plan on the December 1 and 2 trips and the S.M.U. Christmas Party on Sunday, December 4. Notify our office if you need transportation to S.M.U. If there is enough need (at least 8 for the Minibus) we will arrange to have it available at St. Anthony's parking lot about 11:30 a.m.

The Braintree Mall is a rescheduled trip, with preference given to those who originally signed up for the trip. But you must be sure to call in again for reservations. The trip to Blithewold in Bristol, Rhode Island should be unusually attractive at Christmas. I do not believe that we have ever been there at this time. Its 33 acres are noted for birds, flowers, and trees, especially the giant Sequoia, probably never seen outside of California, gardens and exotic plants from China and Japan, and a 45-room mansion with many original furnishings (visitors are allowed to see 18 of its rooms). Christmas should be most unusual there.

Rochester Seniors

The Rochester Senior Citizens' Club will hold their Christmas Party at White's Restaurant in Westport on Monday, December 12th, at noon. The deadline for signing up will be November 30th. Names and money must be in no later than this date. For more information call George Sousa at 763-2241.

and Melissa is the daughter of Murray F. and Jean S. DeCoffe, 122 North Street.

Held annually, the Junior Miss contest is a scholarship oriented event for senior high school girls. Beginning at the local level this year's Wareham contest was held on October 22nd at ORR High School. The seven girls competing came from Mattapoisett, Marion, Rochester, Wareham and Bourne.

Mrs. Dorothy Gayoski of Rochester is coordinator of the Wareham Junior Miss Pageant, working with a scholarship committee from the towns who sponsor the event. Mrs. Gayoski has been assisted by Helen Green of New Bedford, who coached the girls and choreographed the pageant's production numbers, in which all the contestants participated.

Caren performed a Calypso song to the music of "Reincarnation" for her talent portion. She was dressed in a costume made by her mother, Joanne. Caren said she plans to change her talent performance to either a dance number or something more imaginative and creative. She said she has two months to "get a new act together for a shot at the state contest".

The state pageant will be held January 19, 20 and 21 at the Mattachese Middle School in Hyannis. At that time about 25-30 girls are expected to be competing for a chance to go to the national Junior Miss contest next June in Mobile, Alabama. The national contest will be televised, said Mrs. Gayoski.

The Wareham contest was based on physical fitness, creative and performing arts, personal appearance, academic achievement and a 10-minute interview with the judges.

Scholarships were presented to Caren ($300.) and Melissa ($175.); the state awards are also in the form of scholarships.

Caren is excited and looking forward to the next step. She is trying to fit in her preparations for the state event between classes at ORR. She is majoring in languages and Business Law in preparation for a career in law and she hopes to attend Smith College.

Melissa, who is head cheerleader for the high school basketball team, performed a tap dance as her talent offering. She realizes her continued participation in the Junior Miss contest will be based on something preventing Caren from being involved in the State Pageant. Melissa says she is happy to have had the opportunity to participate in the local contest.

Both girls feel gaining stage presence, meeting new people and the excitement of competition have been great experiences.

Successful Pie Sale

Friends, Old Rochester Music would like to take this opportunity to thank everyone who worked toward making our first annual Pie Day a success at the recent homecoming day festivities at Old Rochester Regional High School. Proceeds from the sale went toward the purchase of the drum major uniforms which were purchased at the beginning of the football season. It is our hope to make this an annual event for the organization so that we may continue to support the music program at the Old Rochester Regional High School.

Outstanding Senior at O.R.R.

RECEIVED SUPERINTENDENTS'AWARD OF EXCELLENCE

At the Old Rochester Regional District School Committee meeting of November 8th, Carmen Gracia, senior at Old Rochester Regional High School, received the Superintendents' Award of Excellence as the outstanding senior in the Class of 1984. The award is a new one offered by the Massachusetts Association of School Superintendents to the outstanding graduate from each class in an effort to recognize excellence. The award was presented by Superintendent Joan M. Walsh.

Carmen is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Robert Gracia of Mattapoisett. During her high school career, Carmen has served as class officer and a member of the Student Advisory Committee. She is Vice President of the National Honor Society and President of the Drama Club. For four years Carmen has been a member of the Math Team and is co-captain this year. CABLEGRAM

November 22, 1983

Dear Subscriber,

Thanks for being so patient with American Cablesystems during the transition of our billing system. We still have some bugs to work out, but most of you should now be receiving accurate bills. If you are not, please call us at 748-2400 or 291-0553 between 8 A.M. and 4:30 p.m. and we will correct the problem.

There have been lots of changes at Cablesystems in November, which include: The new Jerrold 450 remote control converters are available to lease for $2.95 a month and a one time $15.00 refundable deposit. The response so far to the converter lease has been extremely encouraging.

Our door to door and telemarketing sales campaign is underway. If you're interested in Cable Television service or adding a new service, please call us and make arrangements for one of our sales representatives to visit your home.

Cable Update, our weekly Cable information program, has been expanded to Friday evenings. Cable Update can now be seen Monday, Wednesday, and Friday at 7:00 p.m. on Bay 8. A new feature which has been added to Cable Update is our own television trivia contest.

Each week a new trivia question will be asked, and all interested viewers can send their answers to American Cablesystems, Attn. Marketing Dept., 149 Wareham Rd., Marion, MA. 02738. A prize will be given to the first correct answer drawn on the following week's Cable Update.

From the staff at American Cablesystems please have a happy and healthy Thanksgiving.

Sincerely,

DOLLARS FOR SCHOLARS RECEIVES GIFTS

The November meeting of the MMR Tri-Town Dollars for Scholars was the scene of a pleasant announcement by Treasurer Arthur W. Shot. An anonymous donor has made a gift of eight shares of IBM stock to the MMR Dollars for Scholars Chapter. The Board voted unanimously to put the stock in an endowment fund to ensure scholarship funds for future generations. A second gift from the Mattapoisett Senior Citizens was also gratefully acknowledged by the Board.

In other business three individuals were unanimously voted new members of the Board. They are Kathy Gayoski of Rochester, Ruth Jefferson, also of Rochester, and Joann Hess of Mattapoisett. Wayne Callahan, representing the Dollars for Scholars student group, reported plans for a fund-raising dance to be held in February. The dance would be open to all high school students in the tri-town area and would feature a live band.

Olive Harris, chairperson of the Awards Committee, reported that her committee has begun working on plans for the 1984 awards process. The committee hopes to make awards available to high school sen-

The final report of the evening was given by Art Director Becky Zora. In a community venture the Dollars for Scholars Board of Trustees worked with members of the VFW Post #2425 to build a float for the Marion Veterans' Day Parade. Three thousand red, white and blue tissue flowers were made by students at Old Rochester Regional Junior High School and all art work was done by the students at Old Rochester Regional High School.

The next issue of this paper will feature a report on the exciting and unique spring fund-raiser Dollars for Scholars will be sponsoring.

LOCAL EDUCATOR SPEAKS AT HAZARDOUS WASTE SYMPOSIUM

Nearly 100 science teachers from across the Commonwealth attended the first Massachusetts Teachers' Symposium on Hazardous Waste at Worcester Polytechnic Institute recently. Tom Grondski, teacher at Old Rochester Regional Junior High School, was a featured speaker and shared with the other educators present his methods for stimulating student interest in the topic of hazardous waste. This day-long symposium was coordinated by the Department of Environmental Management.

DEM Commissioner James Gutensohn noted the importance of this symposium pointing to the long-term significance of the hazardous waste issue. "Our ability to deal effectively with this issue now has important implications for the future," he said. "Children should understand and be involved in those issues that affect their future. This is certainly one of the most critical environmental concerns of this decade, and one that will be with us for a long time." Gutensohn said the symposium is part of the administration's overall program to increase public aware-

Letters to the Editor

November 13-19 was Massachusetts Emergency Medical Services week. The staff of Tobey Hospital wishes to commend and thank the Emergency Medical Services of the surrounding communities for their unselfish dedication to the needs of the ill and injured.

All too often, one focuses on the negative without recognizing the positive deeds of others. The tireless efforts, which are physically and emotionally draining of these men and women toward their fellow men, are unfortunately all too often taken for granted. They answer the call of all in need, many times at considerable expense to themselves and their families. The staff of the EMS spends countless hours taking required courses to keep their skills up to the standard of the art, at no expense to the townspeople.

We, the staff of Tobey Hospital, are proud to be associated with the Emergency Medical Services of the surrounding communities of Wareham, Marion, Bourne, Sandwich, Mattapoisett, Rochester and Carver. We recognize without their sophisticated efforts our job, to help the patients, would be more difficult, if at all possible.

Please show your support to your Emer-

T O P'S CHILDREN'S THEATRE WORKSHOP PRESENTS "THE INVENTION"

"The Invention" involves the efforts of the Narrator and three Fun Merchants to assemble a toy machine which they have invented. Conflict arises when Kalibad, a toy spy, arrives and attempts to sabotage the invention. The main character in the show, however, is the audience, whose vocal and physical participation is necessary for the play to exist.

The children of the audience shout warnings of Kalibad's arrival, carry and actually assemble the invention on stage, put together a cage and trap Kalibad inside of it, recite a mathematical formula to make the machine function properly, and cooperate in various other tasks. If the children are successful in their efforts, they receive a surprise.

Make your day memorable by joining Theatre One Productions in a great adventure. Come to Theatre One November 26th and 27th at 1:30 p.m. at the Nemasket Grange Hall (Route 105), North Main Street, Middleboro. Tickets will be sold at the door. For information call Mary Theresa Saurman at 947-5091.

The observing session will be preceded by a brief indoor orientation program. Participants will be able to view the moon, planets of the solar system and various constellations through the 10" Newtonian reflector telescope that was built by Mr. Dyck. The telescope and observatory housing it is on long-term loan to the Museum.

The program is another in a series of monthly observing sessions offered by the Children's Museum.

Participants should come dressed for the weather. The program is designed especially for families with children as Mr. Dyck's informative commentary is well geared toward children owing to his long experience as an elementary school teacher.

So, bundle up and come out to the Museum. There's nothing quite like a close-up of the heavens on a crisp, clear night! The program is free to Museum members. a special program of workshops for Girl Scouts. This program utilizes the Museum's resources to focus on specific badge work and helps scouts understand and experience the natural world around them and their relationship to it.

In a world that daily grows more complex, Girl Scout leaders are faced with trying to provide experiences for their scouts that require more and more specialized talents and knowledge.

The Children's Museum Girl Scout Program is open to Brownies, Juniors and Cadettes. Workshops are scheduled throughout the school year during after school hours and on Saturdays. Scout leaders should contact the Children's Museum at 993-3361 to schedule a program.

FINAL PERFORMANCES "ARSENIC AND OLD LACE"

Spouters presents a Thanksgiving treat for the residents of the Greater New Bedford Area with its presentation of the classic murder charade "Arsenic and Old Lace". The farce-comedy, written by Joseph Kesselring, is a swiftly moving piece filled with dry and satircal wit. Despite its macabre and sometimes gruesome theme, its humor is guaranteed to generate laughter from the audience. The final two performances will be at 8:00 p.m. Saturday and Sunday, November 26th and 27th. All performances are held at the North End Community Center, 350 Coggeshall Street, New Bedford. For reservations or information call 998-1948.

"My husband, daughter and I want to express our gratitude for the absolutely fantastic nursing care that my daughter received. Each and every one of the nurses (from aides right up to the R.N.'s) who treated her were super. The compassion, warmth and understanding that they showed certainly made her hospital experience much easier to take."

M.S., South Dartmouth

Parkwood Hospital was the first hospital in southeastern Massachusetts to implement "Primary Nursing" on all services.

Primary nursing means that Parkwood employs a higher percentage of registered nurses (R.N.'s). It means the nurses become more involved in direct patient care. And it means our patients receive the very best in personalized, compassionate care.

Primary nursing is just one of the many steps that Parkwood Hospital is taking in its continuing dedication to delivering the finest medical services to the community.

Woolrich

The colorful way to keep warm.

A marvelous selection of outerwear including wool-lined parkas, lightweight Thinsulate parkas, wool-lined vests, down vests, and fashion jackets with Thinsulate or down fill.

And when the outerwear comes off, you can still stay toasty in your Woolrich sweaters, corduroy shirts, wool plaids and chamois shirts!

Some people think Woolrich is the best reason going for cold weather. . . classic styling and modern materials, colors as rich, deep and varied as nature itself. Enjoy the cold weather this year.
